Hint of Secret Vengeance.

papers have bristled with accounts of men who got out of Matteawan, but there were no efforts to get them back. Unless there is some private vengeance to satisfy, why pursue Mr. Thaw to bring him back for this little penal of-fence? For the last seven years the news

The State of New York has spent something like $50,000 in the pursuit of him. Why is he singled out unless there is behind it the viciousness of this prosecution of a private interest of some one's to be served?

"I wish some time I might have a chance to cross-examine Mr. Kennedy as to his connection with this case"

Newport, News, Va., March 12.—Captained to his connection with this case.

Then came Mr. Cook for the "We haven't given it up by a long way.

ing of the laws of the state, Mr. Cook clessed, and Justice Page took up his charge. He asked the jury whether they wished to wait until this morning or receive the case then. They elected to have it at once.

"It has been determined by me that the question of sanity or insanity is not an issue in this trial, and that is final," he said. "You must confine your attention to the questions of fact and not invade my province, which is to determine questions of fact."

"You can't imagine what that little growing green meant to us," he said.

the was on the witness stand for shout half an hour, under cross-examination by Mr. Cook, at the opening of the morning session. From him it was drawn that the $6,000 he paid Butler for taking him away from Matteawan was paid while Thuw was living in New Hampshire during the pendency of the extradition proceedings. The payment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise, "the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, a said the hazards of the cruise, "the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, a said the hazards of the cruise, "the companyment was made in cash, he said the hazards of the cruise," the companyment was made in cash, a said the hazards of the cruise, and the hazards of the cruise, where the companyment was made in cash, a said the hazards of the cruise, and the hazards

American Captain's Story.

Captain Kiehne of the William P.
The course of an inspection of an enemy first line trench thirty metres (about ninety feet) away General Michael Joseph Maunoury, commander of the Line I was arrested."

"Have you any independent judgment on it."

"As I say, my judgment is not conclusive, but I believe I was sane at the time I entered Matteawan." he replied.

Throughout the day Dr. Raymond Kiehn ever there for the purpose of taking Thaw back to Matteawan, and an asylum officer were in the court. It was understood that they were there for the purpose of taking Thaw back to Matteawan in case of an acquital. The defence was prepared for this, having the papers in a new writ of habens corpus prepared for a judge's signature, hoping thereby to keep Thaw in New York County. In case of a verdict of guilty he would stay here anyway, going back to the Tombs to await sentence. They, learned that an automobile was way,"ing for Thaw, and there defered to the crew way. Everyphody to the guns; nobody to sleep!' On the last tree getting of the Williaret.

American Captain's Story.

Captain Kiehne of the William P.

Captain Kiehne of

COAL AND WATER CHIEF PROBLEMS OF PRINZ EITEL

German Captain Tells of Getting Fuel from Captured Ships.

SPREAD SAILS TO CATCH RAIN

and shall not be dragged in without seeing a thing off Chili. Our wheat last night two of the British cruisers were within ten miles of us."

Captain Kiehne said several of the German officers asked him ten or twelve days ago if he knew where they were going to land. Reger Thompson, he said, was in a different situation from the rest, in that he was directed by his employer to go with Butler and obey Butler's orders. Here was nothing in the existence to show, he said, that he acted otherwise up until the time the landau fel brought Thaw away from the asylum and Thompson drove the big care in pursuit of it.

That is not first we will be said, would have a fellow conspirator," he said.

Their verdict, he said, would have no effect on the Dowling committees the request of Mr. Sanchfield, the just of the request of Mr. Sanchfield, the just of the present of the non-commissioned office for the Dowling committees and peak as a solution of the just of the first of the present of the non-commissioned office for the Dowling committees and peak as a solution of the just of the present of the non-commissioned office for the third difference was a first of the difference was a first of the present of the non-commissioned office for the third difference was a first of the commander wen on deek, the poet was cell that they should be back by a color. They were sent to their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions that they should be back by a color. They should have no their dinner, with instructions t attention to the questions of fact and not invade my province, which is to determine questions of law."

Roger Thompson, be said, was in a different situation from the rest, in that he was directed by his employer to go with Butler and obey Butler's orders. There was nothing in the evidence to show, he said, that he acted otherwise up until the time the landautet brought Thaw away from the asy.

of the extradition proceedings. The payment was made in cash, he said in this city recently, likewise in cash, by Thaw's secretary, Harry Rice.

"Do you believe you were ever inseance?" Cook asked.

"That is a question on which my individual judgment is not conclusive," he answered. "One would take the best expert advice of believe I was insane at the time I was arrested."

"Maunoury. Commander of an Army, and Villaret, of a Corps, Shot on Tour.

"American Captain's Story.

"Guaran Captain's Story.

Captain Kiehne of the William Days and the trench thirty of the course of an inspection of an arise as to what should be described by the gavernment of the United States will say a good deal and do very little."

"The Morning Post" says:

"The Morning Post says:

"The Morning Post" says:

"The Morning Post" says:

"Th

Protesting That Germans Treated Them Harshly, U.S. REDOUBLES Prinz Eitel Friedrich's Freed Captives Land Here WATCH ON SHIPS

Kept Below Hatches and Only Brought Up to See Each Captured Ship Sent to Bottom.

ly treated by their German captors, 134 1 to

The spokesmen for the bitter party were from the French and Russian ships. They didn't appear physically affected by what they regarded as a most unpleasant experience, but they expressed high indignation over their treatment on the Eitel Friedrich.

And they hadn't much regard for the German sense of humor. The prisoners, they said, were kept below decks when a capture was made, but were invited up to watch as a captured vessel was destroyed by dynamite.

The men brought to port were 74

Kept Under Armed Guard.

For the first four weeks we were held below under armed guard. The men were not separated into groups of the same nationality, which I regarded as unfair. The only time we were two weeks, when twice a day we were permitted on deck for two hours at a time.

"I had a mattress when I arrived on the Eitel Friedrich, but it was taken away from me a few days later, and away from me a few days later, and a had to sleep on what you might call

The men brought to port were '4 I had before we got into from the Floride (French), 24 from the Japere Loti (French), 23 from the Japere Loti (French) and 13 from the Isacch to me.

"As soon as a vessel was sighted all "As soon as a

Tells How Ship Was Caught.

"We left Taltal, Chili, on December 5 with a cargo of nitre. We were bound for Falmouth to await orders. About the cleaker about the latest prize. That was the German way, undoubtedly, of the latest prize.

CHEERS BRITISH "The Prinz Eitel Friedrich does not if within that category. She has sunk partment has assigned the armored partment has a second "The Prinz Eitel Friedrich does not fall within that category. She has sunk enemy merchant vessels and one neutral vessel. In time of war the only power to enforce the law of nations resides with neutral countries, for the simple reason that beligerent are already at war ith one another and war is the ultimate appeal. The most powerful among neutrals is the United States, and the action of America in the case under consideration is, there-

It is considered that England is play- SING SING INMATE

en to a stay on the pa. of the belliger, sie relused to see any one, en to twenty-four hours, the alterna- this afternoon for Del Monte. and behavior.

OF BELLIGERENTS

Destroyers Take Stations Outside This Port to Block Any Escape.

HINT THAT EITEL IS PLAYING DECOY ROLE

Armored Cruiser Is Sent to Boston, Where Six German Liners Are Tied Up.

verted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich at Newport News Wednesday this government has given exceptional attention to the guarding of ports where vessels of belligerents are either tied up or taking cargo for Europe.

It has been explained by the customs officials in this port and in Boston that the government's extreme precau-

German vessels have been practically the only offenders in this regard. They have left this and other ports with coal and food supplies for German cruisers, and have even gone so far as to leave this harbor and equip subsequently as converted cruisers.

Great Britain and France have had no occasion to resort to such practices, and the customs authorities have had no trouble with them in the matter of no trouble with them in the matter of carrying contraband.

ury and Navy departments is aimed chiefly to prevent Germany from re-peating such performances.

Malone Calls Conference.

a conference yesterday at the Custom House, under instructions from Wash-

"We were out of the track of linguily of the use of the use of the use of the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the use of the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, and pleast to the word; "Captain Thiericheas continued, the word; "Captain T plied for clearance papers.

As a precaution that these steam ships will not get away, the Navy De-

SINC SINC INMATE

The Chited States, and the action of America in the case under consideration is, therefore, of peculiar importance."

SINC SINC INMATE GETS $30,000 CURE charging that part of her cargo which is to go before a British prize court. The Antilla came into Kirkwall on February 26, and was there detained. She reached Dundes March 10.

as absolute contraband while the home government is fighting against the adoption of any such principle. The statement from Germany that the Prinz Etitel's captain sank the Frye in a monant of misguided zeal receives little serious consideration.

It is considered an act of the official German government, which, therefore, is fully responsible. America's attitude is being closely watched. In most quarters a warm protest is expected. "The Shipping Gazette," however, says:

"For our part we are inclined to think the United States will say a good deal and do very little."

"The Morning Post" says:

"The morning Post" says:

"The responsibility can only be laid."

"The responsibility can only be laid."

"She reached Dundee March 10.

A consignment of about fifty tons of graphite is said to be the portion of the cargo of the Antilla that is in question, according to Phelps Bros. & Co., who loaded the steamer here.

"The vessel put into Kirkwall voiuntarily," said a member of the firm. "She had about 5,000 tons of general cargo on board, all of which was shipped by American firms direct to bons and purchasers in Denmark and Sweden. We were advised by Captaly was beld by British authorities, and a protest was at once filed with the fadium, which was furnished by Frank the Prinz of Short Responsibility can only be laid."

"The Morning Post" says:

"The responsibility can only be laid."

Prison attaches say Pachelli's condition has improved wonderfully and he now seems cured. Dr. Squires is preparing a report for the Medical As-

Labor Wilson's fondness for dogs has led him to adopt all tramp dogs that see NEW YORK BROKER HURT

| If the problem of the probl

J.M. Gidding & Ca.

Smart Apparel for the Young Miss-Styles that introduce a touch of distinctive youthfulness, effectively applied to the smartest modes of the day.

Suits-for tramping and utility wear, a wide range of unusually chie styles, belted and pocketed.

Demi-tailleur Suits-in ultra smart models, adapted from latest Paris departure from the ordinary.

Blouses-of crepe de chine, novelty silk and white or colored hand-

Youthful Hats-in styles decidedly chic.

SLASHES WIFE AND AUSTRIAN EMPEROR FIGHTS IN HOSPITAL

Leaves Ten Cuts on Wom- Prince Buelow Officially One on Policeman.

The man was Albert Lashway, fifty- behalf of her ally, Collector Dudley Field Malone called one years old, of 390 Mott Avenue. The clung to him, and before Lashway could break away the surgeons arrived, and one of them, who had grabbed a bed comfort, threw it over Lashway's in Copenhagen that the Bryssel was stopped by the Germans because they suspected that the ship carried cargo other than had been declared.

KRONPRINZ SINKS

ed at Pernambuco.

Dr. A. O. Squires, of Ossining, at the request of Warden Osborne. The radium, which was furnished by Frank A. Vanderlip, the banker, was valued at $50,000. Mr. Vanderlip arranged for part of it to be kept for free use for inmates of the prison, or Westchester County almshouse, of which V. Everit Macy, multi-millionaire philanthropist, is superintendent.

Prison attaches say Pachelli's conditions at Kirkwall, the Antilla was taken on March 9 to Dundee."

SOFT FOR TRAMP TERRIER

Soft To Research was at once filed with the British government through the State Department.

"We were further advised yesterday that owing to the crowded shipping to additions at Kirkwall, the Antilla was taken on March 9 to Dundee."

SOFT FOR TRAMP TERRIER

Prison attaches say Pachelli's condition has improved to day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 massengers of the French Steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco wit

Washington, March 12. Secretary of Captain Jasseau.

ASKS ABOUT DACIA

Coats-introducing silhouettes entirely new, which afford a pleasing

Tailored Frocks for class-room wear, Silk Frocks, for semi-dress occasions, also charming little Dancing Frocks.

WON'T CEDE LAND

sion to Italy.

an with Broken Leg and Raises Question of Ces-

Lashway appeared at the hospital last night and demanded admittance. The night superintendent, who says the man seemed under the influence of liquor, refused to admit him, but somehow Lashway slipped in and up to the ward where his wife was.

For a while he sat with her unnoticed. Suddenly he drew a razor from his pocket and cut his wife three times across the face. Throwing her over onto her face, he slashed her back three times, her shoulders twice and her neck twice.

As Lashway ran toward the door

The Friedrich's master has antiounced his intention of getting out tigain on the sea when his repairs are sade, and this has caused British has eased by the sea with the razor and the surgeons drew entrated off Norfolk their chances retting away would be excellent.

an excape will not occur if the sury and Navy departments can ent it, and to prevent a flight with-

Lashway was locked up on a charge

Proceed to Sweden.

London, March 12.—The steamer Bryssel, of Copenhagen, bound from Philadelphia to Stockholm with oil, was stopped in the Baltic by a German cruiser yesterday and taken to Swinemunde, according to Reuter's Copenhagen correspondent.

The Bryssel arrived at Kirkwall March 1 and voluntarily submitted to an examination by the British authorities, who let her pass. She also stopped at Elsinore, Denmark, where a she received declarations from the consignces, certified by the Swedish authorities that the oil was destined for use only in Sweden.

The correspondent says it is believed in Copenhagen that the Bryssel was

Crew and 143 Passengers of the Guadeloupe Safely Land-

Buenos Ayres, March 12.—The "Diario" announces that the British size and displacement and steamer Churchill arrived to-day at Pernambuco with the crew and 145 that any have been remore that the British size and displacement and funnels, with absoluted that any have been remore that the British that the British that any have been remore that the British that

The Guadeloupe was of 2,974 tons and was built in 1907. She was owned by the French Line and commanded by

NO CHAMPAGNE, SAYS POINCARE, DURING WAR

London, March 13 .- A correspon dent of "The Nation" in France tells a story of King George's recent meeting with the French

"Describing the ceremony and the King's courteous attentions, my communicant went on to say that he asked M. Poincare to drink glass of champagne with him. The President declined, saying he had made it a rule to drink no cham-

vesnel's hull, and the private concerns which insured the balance on the ball and all of the cargo will be taken care ONPRINZ SINKS

FRENCH STEAMER

tion on the case of the Print Ett Friedrich was withheld Captain Bed Ed, the naval attache, spent a few hour in Washington, but said he was suprepared to discuss the situation a present. Later he left for New York tory and the maintena-

EITEL TIME

The ministerial declaration referred to by M. Ghounaris was issued at Athens on March 10 after he had completed the formation of the new Cheinet. It ex-pressed the belief that the observance of neutrality was imperative of Greece if she wished to protect be national interests.

LIMIT SECRET

Continued from page 1

pected, the War Eisk Insurance Buress

Norfolk, Va., March 12,-Navy et ficials who have visited cruiser in drydock here the Prinz Eitel Friedric President. "Travelling in France a little time ago, I came across a gentle man who happened to be the owner of the house in which M. Poincare entertained the King," says the pagne as long as the war lasted."

correspondent.

Inasmuch as Germany has not only been caught acting in bad faith in the matter of neutrality at American ports, but has gone so far as to sink an American vessel carrying a non-contraband cargo, it is generally believed that the present activity of the Treasury and Navy departments is aimed ury and Navy departments in Lincoln Buelow, the German Bu Thirty women patients in Lincoln London, March 13.-Prince Hospital, The Bronx, were startled last Buelow, the German Ambassades night when a woman in one of the cots Italy, according to dispatches received > woman was his wife, Mary, thirty-six years old. She was taken to the hos- Baron Stephan pital on February 16 with a broken leg and placed in Ward 9, on the fourth foor. Lashway appeared at the hospital

Meantime Lashway had run down the stairs into the main corridor, where ne found Patrolman Darcey. The superintendent, on the first floor, had heard Mrs. Lashway's screams, and had blown at Athens, who